The USPTO publishes patent applications at two months from the date of receipt of papers there. The USPTO withheld any publication of its own records until the patent office agency under HHS will meet no earlier than six months from the receipt of or 90 days from the date transferred to the agency. This application will remain off-line publication 6 months from the filing date or 90 days from the above "Date Received" field, however, unless otherwise specified by the USPTO regarding this process recommendation as the transmission of a confidential record.
